A BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Bendheim-Meyers Nuptials one of Altoona's Important Social Events of the Season.

Speaking of the Meyer-Bendheim nuptials the Altoona Tribune says the following:

One of the society events of the season was the wedding of Jacob Meyers and Miss Adele Bendheim last evening in the Logan House parlors. The rooms were very prettily and tastefully decorated for the event and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Miller promptly at 8 o'clock. The happy couple were attended by Miss Gertrude Bendheim a sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and B. Meyers, a cousin of the groom, as best man. The bride was very prettily gowned in white silk and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses, while the maid of honor wore a gown of white d'esprite. Leopold Bendheim and Milton Blumenthal, acted as ushers. After hearty congratulations a sumptuous wedding banquet was served in the Logan House dining hall. The bride is a daughter of Mr and Mrs. Solomon Bendheim, and is one of the city's most highly accomplished and best known young ladies. The groom is a genial and industrious gentleman and is engaged in the clothing business at Monessen. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents, which testify to the esteem of her many friends.

STREET RAILWAY OUTLET FOR DONORA NOW ASSURED

Pittsburg Capitalists Behind the Movement which will Connect their Town with the Pittsburg Railways Company's Lines

Much elation is felt by the citizens of Donora over the announcement of the application for a charter by the proposed Donora & Eldora Street Railway company. Donora has been without a trolley line since the town was founded, and promises of a street car line have so frequently proved vain, that the residents eagerly welcome a genuine movement in that direction.

Those named in the application for a charter as interested in the new line are Robert Miller, R. W. Hervey, J. M. Wanner, James A. Rabe and G. W Jenkins. The Donora & Eldora line will connect the town of Donora with Eldora, which is on the line of the Pittsburg and Charleroi division of the Pittsburg railways, This will give the steel town an outlet to the remainder of the river district.

It is understood that work upon the new line will be started as soon as the charter is granted. The slowness of the other street railway companies to commence work upon a trolley to Donora is understood to be the principal motive for the organization of the Donora & Eldora company. The men behind the new line are in earnest, and will push the work to completion.

DEATH CLAIMS MILL WORKER.

Excessive Heat Partly Responsible Although Stomach Trouble Was Direct Cause of Demise.

The funeral of Jim Tarmackes, who died at his boarding place on Donner avenue about 1 o'clock yesterday morning took place these forenoon, interment being made in Grandview cemetery. The cause of the man's death, which was quite sudden, was stomach and bowel trouble brought on by the excessive heat. Tarmackes was employed as a roller's helper in the Tin mill. He worked Wednesday as usual putting in a double turn although several times he came near being overcome by the heat.

Arriving at his boarding place he is said to have seated himself in a chair where he fell asleep. He did not awaken and investigation showed him to be dead. The dead man who was of Greek descent, was 24 years of age and single. He had not been in this country long.

Republicans Open Headquarters For An Aggressive Campaign.

STUART A POPULAR CANDIDATE

With An Unassailable Record, the Sincerity of His Pledges to Support Popular Measures Is Everywhere Conceded.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, August 21.

While the Republican campaign in this state will not be formally opened for at least a couple of weeks, there has been a vast amount of work already done in preparation for a vigorous and spirited canvass of every county in the commonwealth in the interest of the entire Republican ticket.

The Republican party has never started out under more favorable auspices, with its exceptionally strong and popular candidates running upon a platform which has been taken as a model by Republican state organizations throughout the country, eager to get into line with the advanced thought of Roosevelt leadership and to have the party placed squarely upon record as heartily endorsing and loyally supporting the national administration.

Stuart a Popular Candidate.

The nomination of Edwin S. Stuart for the governorship has spiked the guns of the opposition to the Republican party in Pennsylvania.

Not a word of criticism of him has been heard since he was made the standard bearer of his party. His public record and his private life commend him to the voters, and his sincerity of purpose and his fealty to the cause of Republicanism have never been questioned.

With his colleagues on the state ticket, all of whom have been received with universal commendation, Mr. Stuart is prepared to meet his fellow-citizens face to face in every county in the state and to assure them of his intention to faithfully and conscientiously carry out every pledge made in his acceptance of the nomination for governor. M. Stuart stands squarely upon the platform of the Republican state convention, which is conceded to be a most comprehensive, progressive and thoroughly up-to-date document.

In his letter of acceptance, Mr. Stuart declared that this platform clearly defines the new political duties that have arisen from new conditions, and that the party stands pledged to enact legislation to hold in check and control corporations and to secure equal rights to all

Must Have Two-Cent Rate.

Since Mr. Stuart put himself on record as heartily in accord with the demand for a flat rate of two cents a mile for railroad fare, some of the railroads have made a slight reduction in their rates. When the Republican nominee was interrogated upon this issue he promptly announced that he proposed to adhere strictly to the promises made in the Republican platform, and to insist upon legislation which will meet the full demands of the people.

Mr. Stuart's manly attitude on the question of freight and passenger rate discrimination was clearly set forth when he said:

"Our transportation companies are common carriers, to which have been given special and valuable privileges primarily for the public good, and they are required by the law, by sound public policy and by the common honesty that should govern the management of public trusts to grant equal and exact privileges to all. They must be made to understand that the people of this commonwealth will not tolerate an unjust discrimination which gives to one and withholds from another under like conditions, which builds up the business of a favorite few by crushing competition. This iniquity must stop, and stop at once and a policy of absolute fairness to all must be established and maintained."

To Follow Roosevelt's Lead.

One of the leading issues of the campaign will be the curtailment of corporate power wherever abuses of any character have been revealed, and Mr. Stuart and his fellow candidates will in that respect be found to be ardent and enthusiastic supporters of President Roosevelt as the logical and acknowledged leader in the enforcement of this popular policy.

One of the most gratifying features of the Republican canvass this year is the interest which is being manifested in the details of the preliminary work of the campaign by Republicans all over the state.

Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state committee, has noted a large increase in the correspondence, and finds that the county committeemen are enthusiastic over the prospects of splendid majorities for the entire Republican ticket. There have already been many requests for mass meetings, and it is feared that the state committee will be unable to supply enough speakers to meet the demands of the county chairmen when the canvass gets fairly under way

There have been inquiries for orators of national reputations from close congressional districts, and Chairman Sherman, of the national Republican congressional committe, has promised to cooperate with Chairman Andrews and give every assistance in his power to contribute to the success of Republican nominees throughout Pennsylvania.

The Great Nerve Tonic

Read this letter

Galion, Mich.

Gentlemen: I bought three bottles of your medicine from my druggist. The medicine rendered me very good service, but I am sorry to say that the druggists here are all sold out of your medicine I should have bought six bottles instead of three. I will gladly take six bottles of the Nervine and Blood Tonic, and request that you write me, if you are able to read this, for I am rather old to write I have suffered six years from NERVOUS TROUBLE, caused by a fall, and my whole body remained in a trembly, but no pain Every doctor I consulted failed to help me, and I was compelled to give up all house work. Then I read your advertisement and bought your medicine, and almost immediately after commencing its use I was a new woman. I hope you will write me at once, and tell me how much money I must send, as I am anxious to get to using your medicine again soon. With most hearty regards, I remain,

When sud rise daily torture
From backache, rheumatic pain,
Any ill of kidneys or bladder,
Turn to Doan's Kidney Pills.
A cure endorsed by thousands.
Read an old man's tribute.

Sidney Justus, fruit dealer, of Mentor, Ohio, says: "I was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills of a severe case of kidney trouble of eight or ten years' standing. I suffered the most severe backache and other pains in the region of the kidneys. These were especially severe when stooping to lift anything, and often I could hardly straighten my back. The aching was bad in the daytime, but just as bad at night, and I was always lame in the morning. I was bothered with rheumatic pains and dropsical swelling of the feet. The urinary passages were painful, and the secretions were discolored and so free that often I had to rise at night. I felt tired all day. Half a box served to relieve me, and three boxes effected a permanent cure."

SIDNEY JUSTUS.

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Justus will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

Caterpillar Fever.

The symptoms of the ailment known to doctors as "caterpillar rash" are intense irritation on the palms, and sometimes on the face, accompanied by a number of blisterlike swellings which, when they occur round the eyes, sometimes have the effect of obstructing vision. The preventive is to leave hairy caterpillars alone. As the "palmer worm," the hairy caterpillar of the gold tail moth, one of the commonest and most beautiful objects of the country at midsummer, passes from hand to hand it leaves on every palm a few of its loosely attached hairs, and those hairs are poisoned, for the protection of the caterpillar against birds and brows of animals, of what scientists call "urticating properties." "Urtica" is the Latin for "nettle." Many other hairy caterpillars are almost as bad as the "palmer worm," and as a general rule the less you handle any hairy caterpillar the better.—Leslie's Mail.

The Benefit of Exercise.

Exercise does for the body what the mountain side does for the stream of water. When the water runs down the mountain side it is a babbling brook, leaping out into the air now and then, throwing itself into spray, exposing itself to the air and sunshine and the waters are crystal pure. In the valley or on a level plain the waters may form stagnant pools and get covered over with scum of all sorts and inhabited by all kinds of filthy creeping things. Some people let themselves get into the condition of that stagnant pool and then wonder why the frogs croak in their brains and why the birds do not sing instead. When a person gets into the condition where the body is like a stagnant pool a radical change must be made in his life. He must begin by getting vitalized, new blood into all his cells and tissues.—Good Health.

Jackson In Triumph.

After the battle of New Orleans, says Thomas E. Watson in his magazine, when the victor had been crowned with laurel in the cathedral and acclaimed like a demigod through the streets, it was of his mother that he spoke to the officers whom he was about to disband -their glorious work being done. "Gentlemen, if only she could have lived to see this day!" As you follow the narrative of Andrew Jackson's career, you will hear him say many things that you will not approve, will see him do many things which you cannot applaud, but when you recall that at the very top notch of his success and his pride his heart stayed in the right place and was sore because his mother could not be there to gladden her old eyes with the glory of her son you will forgive him much in his life that was harsh and cruel and utterly wrong.

Sweetheart of "Robin Adair."

"Robin Adair" was written by Lady Caroline Keppel, the daughter of the Earl of Albemarle. Robin was a real character, a young Irish doctor who had been forced by a scandalous adventure to leave Ireland and seek his fortune in England. Chance threw a rich patient in his way, a lady of quality, and at her house he met Lady Caroline, and the result was a case of love at first sight on both sides. Her parents objected and sent her away, and during her absence she produced the song.

The actor works when he plays and the musician plays when he works.
